

The Queenslander Pictorial.

King George Decorates Australian Hero.

His Majesty decorating an Australian hero
after the review of the troops.

General King, photo

Among the Gulf Stations— Inverleigh and Wernadings.

Inverleigh Station

Wernadings Station

Wernadings Station

A Double-headed Bone on Inverleigh

Inverleigh Team

A Driver's Van

Inverleigh Car with Driver's Van

ROLL OF HONOUR.

LIEUTENANT C. D. RUFF,
who died in action in France.

LIEUTENANT RALPH GORDON, of the Royal Field Artillery, late of the 1st Battalion, 1st Division, in France, May 25, 1917. He was the only son of the late Ralph Gordon, Victorian Trades, and of Mrs. Gordon, Edinburgh, and had only one son, now in the 1st Battalion of the 1st Division, 1st Division, in which property he had no interest.

SERGEANT F. A. KELLA, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Kella, Riddings, Victoria, Australia. He died in action in France, May 25, 1917.

PRIVATE WALTER E. MCCALL, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCall, New York, N.Y. He died in action in France, May 25, 1917.

REINFORCEMENTS.
the same photo	G. Gibson	J. Auld	M. Avery	E. J. Corbett	B. Farn	S. T. Hasty
V. C. Leahy	J. S. Reid	J. B. Troppe	L. Williams	W. Whaley	E. J. Corbett	S. T. Hasty
C. Fuller	J. S. Reid	W. J. Murphy	G. E. W. Voss	G. T. Haffey	E. T. Williams	R. A. Kennedy
E. Davis	V. A. French	G. H. Gorman	A. E. W. G. M.	C. H. Gorman	P. H. Gorman	A. V. Gorman

ILLUMINATING THE FRENCH DISCHARGE.

Great effort is being made in the French Islands to make the country self-sufficient in food as much as possible. Agriculture is carried on at night to get as much land as possible under crop.

FIGHTERS AND MUNITION MAKERS.

King George Reviews Australian Troops.

A striking photograph showing the huge mass of troops passing before His Majesty.

The Royal Tour in the North.
Women workers who greeted the King and Queen at a North of England Munition Factory

WALKERS OF WAR.

A spectacular photograph showing the Canadians advancing over the Moon's Land through the German barbed wire and heavy shell pits to the surface of Vimy Ridge, "where the 'Crested' demonstrated themselves to attack."

WRECKED WITH THEIR OWN GUNS.

Two British guns captured by the Germans during an advance, and found to be in the retreating Germans.

—("British News" photo.)

